

TF1-DELF

	TFI	DELF
Audience	Non-native speakers of French	Non-native speakers of French
Objectives	To place students in appropriate levels	To provide official certification of the participant's level of French language proficiency against the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).
	To evaluate the proficiency of students at different stages in their courses.	To promote language learning, to facilitate educational and occupational mobility, and to support plurilingualism and multiculturalism.
	To increase motivation by setting clear course objectives.
Certification	Issued by Educational Testing Service, a private educational testing and measurement organization.	Issued by the Ministère de l'Éducation Nationale of France. Valid for two years. Life-long certification.
	Valide pour une période de deux ans.	Certification permanente.
	Valid for two years	Life-long certification
Administration	Can be administered in educational institutions or other agencies requesting the test if appropriate test administration conditions are met.	Can be administered in educational institutions or other agencies requesting the test if appropriate test administration conditions are met. Can only be administered under stringently-controlled conditions by testing centers accredited by the Centre international d'études pédagogiques (CIEP), a public establishment under

		the Ministry of Education of France
		Chaque année, après consultation de tous les centres d'examens, un calendrier national est établi afin d'assurer que tous les étudiants subissent le même test au même moment.
		A national calendar is set every year through consultation with all exam centers, ensuring that all students take the same test at the same time.
Skills Assessed	Listening comprehension	Listening comprehension
	Reading comprehension	Reading comprehension
		Written production
		Spoken production and interaction